

Whereas, Clinton's extraordinary achievements in becoming an All-America City deserves recognition by the General Assembly; Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. The General Assembly honors the memory of Richard Clinton for his contributions to the State of North Carolina.

SECTION 2. The General Assembly honors the City of Clinton and its citizens for receiving the National Civic League's All-America City Award and wishes to extend its congratulations to the City of Clinton and its citizens for bringing national recognition to the State of North Carolina.

SECTION 3. The Secretary of State shall transmit a certified copy of this resolution to the Mayor of the City of Clinton.

SECTION 4. This resolution is effective upon ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified this the 10th day of July, 2007.

Resolution 2007-55

Senate Joint Resolution 1567

A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF GROVER ROBBINS, JR., FOUNDER OF TWEETSIE RAILROAD ON THE THEME PARK'S FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Whereas, in 1866, the East Tennessee & Western North Carolina Railroad Company was given permission to construct a railroad between Tennessee and North Carolina; and

Whereas, rail service began in 1882 between Johnson City, Tennessee, and Cranberry, North Carolina, and within a few years was extended to Boone, North Carolina; and

Whereas, the name "Tweetsie" came about as a result of the shrill "tweet, tweet" sound made by the train's whistles as the train passed through the mountains; and

Whereas, the East Tennessee & Western North Carolina Railroad Company ceased operating in 1950, and the company's only surviving coal-fired steam engine, Tweetsie Locomotive #12, changed owners several times before it was purchased in 1956 by Grover Robbins, Jr., a native of Blowing Rock, North Carolina; and

Whereas, Grover Robbins, Jr. developed the concept for Tweetsie Railroad and opened the attraction as North Carolina's first theme park on July 4, 1957; and

Whereas, Grover Robbins, Jr. made other contributions to North Carolina's tourism industry prior to his death in 1970, including developing the Hound Ears Lodge and Club on Beech Mountain, Linville Land Harbor, and the former Land of Oz Theme Park on Beech Mountain; and

Whereas, Tweetsie Railroad offers visitors a variety of entertainment, including an action-packed three-mile train ride featuring Tweetsie Locomotive #12, a Wild West theme park, live shows, amusement rides, scenic chair lift rides to Miner's Mountain, a Tweetsie Railroad/ET & WNC Museum, and a petting zoo; and

Whereas, Tweetsie Railroad also has a complete steam train repair shop business, which rebuilds and restores locomotives for other theme parks and museums; and

Whereas, Tweetsie Railroad's #12 locomotive is listed on the National Register of Historic Places; and